NOSE

A brilliant golden hue with amber highlights, revealing a refined nose of candied mandarin and kumquat. Ripe mango brings an exotic richness, subtly balanced by a delicate, herbaceous touch.

PALATE

A fresh attack, carried by an elegant minty thread. A surprising complexity unfolds, balancing floral notes of verbena and orange blossom with a generous texture wrapped in silky tannins. The wine lingers on a savoury, subtly overripe finish, lifted by delicate bitter nuances.

NOTES

A rare and captivating wine — a true invitation to a sensory journey. A Silk Road of freshness, depth, and aromatic harmony.
